

Who Else Wants A Youthful Movie Star Looking Face?

This latest Technology
Anti-Aging Miracle Device
Quickly Erases At Least 15 years
Of Lines, Wrinkles, and Sagging
From Your Face

It's guaranteed to work or your money back

Dear Friend,

I have some important questions for you. Think carefully as you answer...

When you look in the mirror do you notice that your face is showing signs of aging, that you are looking older? Do you notice lines and wrinkles starting to appear on your face? Is your face showing signs of losing its elasticity, and starting to sag? Has your face already started to lose its youthful radiant glow?

Do you worry, because you fear, that this escalating look of aging on your face is something that you cannot control, that now it's going to keep increasing at a more rapid rate that you are soon going to look real old real fast. Do you feel that it's too late for you to reverse, and bring that youthful look back to your face again? Do you worry that you are losing your looks... for the entire world to notice?

Have you been noticing that your family, friends, loved ones, the people at work, even your romantic interests... have all been looking at your face, a little longer, and a little more often than usual? Have you been noticing that they now respond to you differently, and have even started to treat you a little differently?

Are you starting to worry that you might not be as attractive as you used to be, and people may not perceive you as they used to. Do you worry that people are judging you differently, perceiving you differently, and treating you differently.

Have you been noticing that many people seem to look "through you" now as if you did not exist, not directly at you, as they always used to, that they are ignoring you more, not noticing you as often as they used to... that they don't take you as seriously, or include you as often, as they used to?

Are you angry at all of the money that you had spent so far on anti-aging products did not produce the results that you were hoping for? Do you also feel angry with life itself, because you realize how unfair it is that some of the other people manage to still look very young, although they're not?

Do you feel that you are definitely not getting the respect that you use to get at work, that you are getting passed over more often, and definitely no longer on a track to obtain the advancements that you deserve? Do people no longer invite you into their discussions, no longer ask you for your opinion?

Do you stay up at night worrying that you sense that your mate, or your love interest is fading, or is going to, lose interesting in you? Do you feel that you have lost, or are fast losing, your sex appeal?

Are you starting to feel down and insecure, is this causing you to lack confidence?

If you answered yes to any of the above questions...

- Do you want to look and feel younger again?
- Do you want to feel attractive again?
- Do you want to look pretty, sexy and young again?
- Do you want to have fun and feel confident?
- Do you want to regain your youthful beauty?

If you answered "YES" to any of these questions, then I have some important news for you...

The news is that you are NOT alone.

We have your solution.

And it's a true technological miracle

People used to believe that as they grew older the aging look to their face was inevitable... they thought that it was simply part of the natural aging process... that nothing could be done about it. Every time they saw someone with facial wrinkles and lines... with the youthful radiant look gone from their face... their inner voice said "that will be me in a couple of years". Then when these same people looked into the mirror and saw the lines and wrinkles starting to appear on their face... their same inner voice said "well here it is, my life is really going to change now". I had better brace myself and accept this... nothing can be done about it.

Nothing could be further from the truth.

Now Picture This...

Now - close your eyes... relax, take a deep breath and concentrate on removing the negative images from your mind that were put there by the above series of questions.

Now picture that as you look in the mirror you now see a beautiful youthful image of yourself staring back at you. You notice that you no longer have any lines, wrinkles, age spots, and no sagging skin on your face.

How does that new image make you feel?

Now continue visualizing that your family, friends, your loved ones, the people at work, and even your romantic interests... are now looking at your face with renewed approval and interest.

You notice that they are looking at your face with a smile showing their interest and appreciation. They are even starting to treat you differently, but differently in a very nice way.

People now make lots of eye contact with you, smile at you, show lots of interest, and try to hold eye contact with you as long as they can.

Picture your loved ones, and your mate, showing you much more interest and attention than they've shown you in a very long time.

Picture the renewed sense of image and confidence that is swelling up inside of you... because you know, how wonderful you now look, and how other people are reacting to it, and how they are treating you because of it.

Isn't that an amazing difference between the two above images of yourself?

Which image of yourself would you like to turn into reality?

You now have the power to choose

The wonderful thing about the revolutionary Anion anti-aging facial massager is that it will actually create a more youthful, a much more beautiful and radiant, looking face that you have been yearning for.

With this amazing technology... you have the ability to once again capture your youthful looks. You no longer have to dream about recapturing the looks that you've been noticing are starting to fade. The wonderful thing about recapturing your youthful looks, is what it also does for you emotionally. It's been proven that you then start thinking younger, feeling younger, and acting younger. Your self image, and self confidence greatly improves.

It's no wonder then that people who start looking younger and acting younger, automatically start looking sexier, feeling sexier, and acting sexier. They also seem to once again start receiving the opportunities that had been denied of them. The romantic life, and their love lives, seemed to take a fantastic turn for the better. People in the workforce report that they have been advancing at a faster rate... than before they brought back their youthful look. They are once again being offered positions that they had been passed over before.

Can you picture what a renewed youthful look... with no more lines, or wrinkles, on your face... a more youthful glowing radiant skin is going to do for your romance life and your love life?

We would like to present to you the Anion anti-aging facial massager

It will make that new image of yourself that you are now picturing, an absolute reality

Use this amazing anti-aging facial massager
Today... look and feel young again!

It gives you amazingly younger looking skin.

The Anion anti-aging facial massager combines the action of ions, infrared rays and micro massage with the exclusive formulation for a brighter color and clearer skin. Can you imagine how wonderful your face is going to look without any lines, any wrinkles, how it's going to look firm and tight without sagging? Can you even remember how your face used to look 15 years ago?... actually, you really don't have to remember, it's going to wind up looking that way again... that will sure jog your memory.

Do You Want Your Youthful Radiant Looks back Again?

The Anion anti-aging facial massager is the most technologically advanced home use instrument and skin care treatment designed for the reduction and prevention of facial wrinkles and the overall improvement of skin vitality. The Anion anti-aging facial massager helps reduce the depth of wrinkles, improve the texture and brightness of the skin, and helps to firm facial muscles with its daily 16 minute relaxing regime.

Say Goodbye To Wrinkles, Lines, Crows Feet, Puffy Eyes, And Sagging Skin

It brings the power of professional beauty treatments right into your home.

In today's harsh environment... Premature aging is caused by pollution, sun exposure, smoking, drinking, poor nutrition and inadequate water intake. Even those with a healthy lifestyle are not immune. With the increased dangers posed by the environment. Most people have no control over environmentally caused anti-aging. But now you have the ability to take total control of what these environmental factors have been doing to your face and to your looks.

Traditional skincare or 'beautifying' products do not act as an effective weapon against the skin aging.

What will it do for me?

- . Lift
- . Smooth
- . Brighten

. Tone

Using a unique, 4-program combination of positive and negative ions, infrared rays and micro massage, the new Anion Facial Massager will...

cleanse, tone and brighten your skin from the inside out.

The three cutting edge technologies - already scientifically proven highly effective as stand-alone treatments in the beauty and aesthetics industry - are brought together in one precision-crafted Italian-engineered device to use at home in this 4-phase, easy to follow beauty regime.

The actions and benefits delivered by each individual technology are magnified exponentially when combined together in the new Anion Facial Massager. Each works with the other to double and triple their effectiveness on your skin.

Phase

The Property of the ions:

The contact of your hand with the 2 side sensors enables the new Anion Facial Massager to emanate positive and negative ions during the treatment. Ions attack bacteria and free radicals. And they strengthen the capability of cellular resistance.

The opposite energies of the ions working together creates energy which kills blemish-causing bacteria in the skin, and creates a natural drawing effect which deep cleanses and disinfects pores. Dirt and bacteria is eliminated without the use of harsh chemicals.

Most importantly, the natural pH of the skin remains completely unaffected, leaving the skin balanced and chemically unstressed. Maintaining a natural pH is vital in the treatment of oily, acne prone skin.

Free radicals (unstable molecules in the environment which cause skin damage and the appearance of aging) are neutralized and stabilized by the negative ions emitted by the new Anion Facial Massager.

Phase

Infra-red rays:

The Infra-red rays emitted during the treatment process penetrate below the top dermal layer to minutely increase the temperature of the blood vessels below it.

It is very important to note that infra red rays should not be confused with Ultra Violet rays. Although both rays are present naturally in sunlight, it is only Ultra Violet which affects the skin's melanin and creates a "tanning" effect and sun damage. Infra Red rays carry only heat and are highly beneficial to the skin when delivered in carefully measured doses by the new Anion Facial Massager.

The tiny change in temperature of the skin increases blood flow and circulation to improve toxin removal and promote cellular health. Improved blood flow means that the production of collagen and elastin - the building materials of skin which make it look plumped and elastic - is stimulated. Infrared rays also speed up scam metabolism.

The more collagen and elastin your skin produces, the fresher and younger your skin will look! Micro massage also strengthens the elasticity of the skin, rendering it with better tone and elasticity.

Phase

Micro-massage:

The ancient art of massage has long been hailed for its regenerative, relaxing and healing properties.

By gently stimulating the muscles of the face and causing them to contract, the advanced micro-massage technique delivered by the new Anion Facial Massager is like a mini work-out for the face!

As the muscles work, they naturally tighten and firm, resulting in a toning, lifting and smoothing effect on your skin. And while the muscles work out, their circulation and blood flow is improved; a doubling of the benefits already delivered by the Infra Red rays!

A second benefit delivered by the new Anion Facial Massager's micro-massage technique, is that tension in the face muscles is soothed away, resulting in less frowning and clenching of teeth. Both actions can lead to permanent line damage in the skin so the less of both the better.

Massager face slowly, with The Anion anti-aging facial massager from the inside to the outside until the program stops automatically. Phase 2 makes your skin more elastic and toned, and it prepares your skin for phase 3.

Phase

Super Absorption

We've talked about the three separate physical phases in the Anion's regimen. Now let me tell you about the physiological benefits provided by using the new Anion Facial Massager.

As I said earlier, free radicals are unstable molecules found in our everyday environment, which attack the cellular structure of the skin (collagen and elastin is part of this) and cause the wrinkling, sagging and other signs of aging we are all familiar with.

As well as cleansing and firming, the combined action of micro-massage, ion treatment and infra red application makes the skin SUPER ABSORBENT.

Why is this important?

Scientists have discovered that the way to combat free radical damage of the skin is to use antioxidants. There are many different types of Antioxidants present in fresh fruit and vegetables, and other healthy foods, and the very best known of these are Vitamin E and Vitamin C.

When you apply Antioxidants to your face in the form of cream and serum, some of the antioxidants are absorbed through the upper dermal layer, but most are lost to the atmosphere.

The action of the new Anion Facial Massager renders the skin super absorbent and ready to absorb FAR MORE of the antioxidant preparation applied than it would normally be.

This means that many more free radical fighting antioxidants find their way to the lower dermal layers of your skin, where they can do the most good.

Enjoy the benefits of a movie star class personal beauty system:

1. This second generation replacement of the original “Anion” beauty massager is popular with celebrities and stars all over the world.
2. The product boasts advanced ion introduction technology, which strengthens the ion effect and function. The biggest advantage of the product is the negative ion technology can make skin maintenance and care easy and variable according to age and strength requirements, and can be directed towards the main ageing sites and wrinkle channels on the face. The product has been named as top beauty accessory in the orient.
3. Ergonomic design is convenient for storage and transportation, and the LCD digital screen display also makes the product easy to use.

Get to know your skin:

The skin consists of 3 main layers, the cutis layer, corium layer, and hypodermis, which contains fat. Skin cells renew themselves over a period of 28 days. The cutis layer acts a protective barrier, and helps to minimize the damaging effects of environmental factors such as pollution UV exposure and chemical absorption, but it also can prevent the skin absorbing nutrition.

The second generation “Anion” Beauty Massager employs the latest introduction technology which can penetrate the deep protective cutis layer. It can dislodge dirt in deep skin tissue, accelerate circulation and aid absorption of nutrients, all of which help the skin to become clean, radiant and healthy-looking.

Just sixteen minutes a day to a better skin:

The four main functions of the “Anion” Beauty Massager are:

Cleaning: The active oxidation component of the optical catalytic reaction can kill 99% of yellow staphylococcus and 0-157 bacterium, strengthening the resistance capacity of the skin cell. Switch the unit on, select the intensity (L, M, H), and start with program 1.

Rinse with water and rub your face with a warm towel. Massage your face slowly, with the Anion facial massager from the inside to the outside until the program stops automatically.

Infrared: Reverses the damage caused by UV exposure, promotes dilation of capillary vessels which helps to reduce the appearance of thread veins and aid their re-absorption into the body, leaving the skin more even toned and brighter.

Anion Impulse current Massage: A mild impulse current between anode + and cathode – aids absorption of soluble product, revives melanin, lightens and evens out the skin tone and helps nutrient absorption to the deeper layers.

Vibration: Mild vibration on key facial areas affected by ageing and wrinkles can help tighten and shrink open pores and enhance skin elasticity.

The professional beauty treatment now for your own home!

Follow the four phases as directed for home application:

Phase 1: ‘Beautician’s Steam Clean’

- Wash your face (cleanse and tone) to remove any excess make-up and dirt.
- Apply a moisturizing cream that suits your skin type on your face and neck.

- Select clean function and move the “Anion” massager slowly all over the face and neck for four minutes.
- Wash off any product with warm water or hot moist towel.

Phase 2: ‘Lymph Toxin Expelling Massage’

- Rub the hand-activated ion strips with + and – up and down ten times a second to create the negative charge which will filter into your skin in the 3rd phase.
- Select far infrared massage function and apply the same cream as before to the face and neck.
- Wash your face with warm water after massaging for 4 minutes.

Phase 3: ‘Anion massage, and nutrition absorption’

- The mild current produced in this phase filters the soluble nutrients into the deepest layer of skin.
- Select the essence or astringent that best suits your skin, and introduce the ions in mask after soaking. This phase can be repeated for better results.
- Do not wash your face during phases 3 and 4.

Phase 4: Recovery, pore shrinkage and skin evening

- Gentle pulses conducted through the skin every second effectively stimulates the skin and allows easy importation of the soluble components created in Phase 3 to the deepest skin layers

It revitalizes your skin

It is no longer necessary to go through the expense of undergoing painful surgery or shots, of toxic chemicals like Botox, which is so risky, and affords far from permanent results. Botox, with all of its dangers, does not provide results equal to the daily use of the Anion facial massager.

The Anion facial massager is the modern miracle that you have been searching for. Using The Anion facial massager is guaranteed to rejuvenate the tone and texture of your skin and leave you long lasting youthful effects... as it has done for so many thousands of its users already.

The Anion facial massager revitalizes your skin to a level you have not seen since your youth. You are going to be so happy that you are using it. It is going to make your face look more youthful, and therefore make you feel youthful.

The Anion facial massager was first discovered, and used by many people in the show business and movie communities. Youthful looks (and all the rewards that it brings them) is absolutely necessary in the movie community... after all, how far would a movie starlet go without them?

When the original version first came out. It was gobbled up virtually as fast as it was being manufactured... at prices as high as $3,000 per unit. Nothing was too good or too expensive for them, if it actually made the movie stars look younger to their fans... as this product obviously did. The show business community kept the original version of this product, hidden away as their own secret.

As its reputation spread, by word of mouth, and people started to see for themselves the wonderful things it was doing for anti-aging of their favorite movie stars and celebrities... a demand started to grow for a version of this product at more affordable prices for the masses.

As research was being conducted for a less expensive version of this product that would appeal to the masses... it was eventually discovered how to produce an even superior, more effective, version of this product at a much lower price that would appeal to most. That's how this new improved version was eventually brought to market.

Reduces the signs of aging on the skin

A daily 16 minute regimen with the Anion facial massager will drastically decrease the appearance of lines and wrinkles on your face, while it revitalizes your skin in addition to increasing collagen and elastin for men and women.

That anti-aging process is the basis of the youthful look to your face that The Anion facial massager produces for you. You are going to be so pleased as you watch the ravishing signs of aging disappear from your skin. You will notice it... but the wonderful thing is... so will everyone else. Your only regret will be that you did not start with this program, much sooner.

The Anion facial massager reduces the signs of aging on the skin so completely... that it has a positive anti-aging affect on almost every part of your face that starts showing any signs of aging. The total youthful effect to the entire face has its users calling The Anion facial massager... “the miracle machine”.

Diminishes fine lines and wrinkles

The Anion facial massager is a revolutionary cutting edge anti-wrinkle solution, which will bring back the radiant look to your skin and help you look younger and more beautiful. The Anion facial massager will greatly reduce the appearance of wrinkles, fine lines, crows feet, and other effects of aging on the skin.

It does this by hydrating your skin, tightening your skin, and working on the collagen and elastin. You are going to love The Anion facial massager ! It’s going to become your best friend. In fact, everyone that you meet is going to notice it’s effect on your face.

Smooths rough skin texture for ultimate skin care

This revolutionary anti-aging product uses the latest cutting edge, most scientifically advanced, technology available today... to smooth your skin and produce a youthful skin texture. The Anion facial massager not only helps to firm, hydrate, and tighten facial skin, but it also repairs the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles.

Clears darkening from around the eyes

Dark circles around, and under, your eyes seem to magically vanish as The Anion facial massager restores your face back to the look of your youth. The units, infrared capabilities, coupled Anion Paulson, and his vibration has been proving to be pure magic to the anti-aging of the face.

Removes puffiness from around the eyes

The Anion facial massager offers fast results targeting wrinkles, crows feet around the eyes, and other signs of aging. You're going to be very happy as you notice that the beauty stealing puffiness is no longer around your eyes. The renewed skin tightness around your eyes will quickly restore your youthful appearance once again.

Stimulates the renewal of skin cells

Besides reducing the outward signs of aging, The Anion facial massager also stimulates the renewal of your skin cells for a long term improvement. This fabulous effect is the combination of the units infrared capabilities, Anion pulsing, and vibration.

The combination of these three technologies has a synergistic combination effect... that combines to develop the longer lasting beauty for your face. A 16 minute daily treatment featuring this combination stimulates the renewal of your skin cells.

Brings back elasticity to sagging skin

Where The Anion facial massager differs so greatly from any other product on the market is in its ability to actually bring back elasticity to aging sagging skin. Anion facial massager users are starting to call this wonderful affect "the scalpel less facelift". This is why The Anion facial massager produces a much better look for your face and skin, than any other product on the market today... even those costing hundreds (sometimes thousands) of dollars more. You are going to fall in love with this product. You are going to wonder how you ever lived without it before.

Hydrates Skin Dryness

A hydrated skin is a youthful looking skin. The Anion facial massager accomplishes hydrating the skin so totally well... it combines several of the most effective anti-ageing skincare technologies that will really leave your skin feeling young and smooth. We guarantee it! This superior hydration effect is what teams up with the units. Other effectiveness to miraculously, make age related lines and wrinkles a thing of the past.

Produces healthy skin coloration

Most men and women want to erase the ravages of time, remove facial wrinkles, and restore this skin to its younger days. The Anion facial massager can easily help to remove 10 years or more from your complexion.

And also Prevent other external and internal threats affecting ageing skin

To achieve these results The Anion facial massager uses patented technologies that have produced results unseen in the anti-aging industry. The Anion facial massager targets major problem areas like sagging skin, skin discoloration, dryness and rough skin; not just wrinkles.

And many customers see results after just a few treatments! The Anion facial massager has come to be known as the safe Botox alternative, providing equal or better results without the risk.

Puts that youthful look back into your skin

It so effectively, and so completely, restores the extremely healthy look of youthful skin and face. Many customers report that The Anion facial massager is so much more effective than Retinol or Vitamin C creams in reducing the signs of aging and removing the appearance of wrinkles. When comparing your options for anti-aging products The Anion facial massager clearly comes out on way on top.

Testimonials
From Our Satisfied Customers
What People Are Saying...

"I have been using the Anion Massager for three weeks now and I am utterly delighted with the improvement I can ALREADY see in my skin! I am a real fan of this little machine."

YG, Tunbridge Wells

"I got my Anion Facial Massager as a present for my birthday and I must say that I was very skeptical at first. But even I have to admit that the difference to my skin from before I used it is phenomenal. I think this could be the best present I've ever received."

SD, Limehouse

"Wow! What an amazing idea and what a great thing to find a product that actually works and does what it says it will! My skin is looking better than it has in years and people are noticing! My daughter even went out and bought one after she saw what it did for me..."

BW, Shenfield

"I don't usually believe the hype about this sort of thing, but after 6 weeks of fairly assiduous use (one has to do something if one can't have surgery) I have definitely seen an improvement. I look forward to the next 6 weeks, and the next... I would highly recommend the Anion Massager to anyone in need of a little lift in their life!"

It AR, Victoria (Australia)

"My skin is definitely looking brighter and slightly less wrinkled from my first three weeks of use. I have also grown to very much enjoy the 16 minutes of 'me time' a day which the Anion process has unexpectedly given me. I find the whole thing very relaxing and I can see the results, which is the most important thing!"

METABO EXTREME is the fantastic herbal weight loss wonder supplement which quite literally will change your life! And change it forever!!!

Here's the science!

Our Metabolic Rate is the rate at which the body uses ENERGY to support all basic functions essential to sustain life, plus all energy requirements for additional activity and digestive processes.

Metabolism, simply put, is the process whereby the body converts food sources into energy to utilize for basic functioning, tissue repair, or for storage in adipose tissue (fat) for future use as energy. If a person has a fast metabolism it means they burn calories (a process called thermogenesis) more quickly and efficiently and store less as fat. A slower metabolism burns fewer calories, is less efficient and therefore stores more calories as fat. The metabolic rate can vary depending on several factors.

I want you to remember thermogenesis please; it is very important and I will come back to it.

In the days of our cave men ancestors, people very often did not know when they were going to get their next meal, so the body developed a system of carefully storing any spare energy (calories) received for future use if times got hard.

So, your body stores fat in fat cells as part of normal healthy metabolic function. It uses this fat to provide you with energy, the energy we all need to live our daily lives, to walk up a flight of stairs, play a game of football or do the hoovering.

When the body uses stored fat for energy it breaks down the contents of the fat cell via enzymes to release glycerol and fatty acids into the blood. As the circulating fatty acids reach muscle cells that require extra energy they are transported across the membrane and into the muscle cell where the fatty acid enters the mitochondria of the cell. Mitochondria are the powerhouse of a cell; they extract energy from fat and carbohydrates to produce the cell's usable form of energy? ATP (think of ATP as petrol in a car).

In other words, fat feeds our muscles via the metabolic process.

OK enough of the heavy science stuff!

It's enough for us mere mortals to know that the rate at which the body stores and then breaks down fat and feeds it to our muscles is different in every different person.

Some lucky people have a super-fast metabolic rate (that blonde at the office and your slacker mate). This means that THEIR fat is broken down and fed to their muscles almost before it has time to be stored in thunder thighs, spare tyres, beer guts and bingo wings.

Those UNLUCKY ones with a slower rate of metabolic burn, are the ones who pick up the bulges.

LOOKS LIKE A RIGHT UNFAIR ADVANTAGE TO ME!

And it gets worse: even if you do go on a diet, the experts say that "You will NOT lose a lot of excess fat weight if you don't Increase your Metabolism before lowering your calorie intake". Even a slight increase in your metabolic rate will speed up fat loss over many months without dieting.

So, when you read all of this, do you become utterly furious? Have you spent so long trying to lose weight, miserably dieting and eating horrible bird food and never seeing any results?

Well it's all down to a freak of Mother Nature, who gave you a slow metabolism which could mean you are condemned to a life of dry rye crackers and unsightly flab! Why do you have to watch others eating whatever they want, while you have to diet ALL THE TIME and monitor every mouthful?

Does it really burn you up and make you angry?

Well, relax! That's all about to change with METABO EXTREME!

METABO EXTREME uses active ALL NATURAL ingredients to SPEED UP THE BODY'S METABOLIC RATE!

You may not have been born with the Carl Lewis of metabolic rates, but do you know what? You should no longer care and even better, it doesn't matter any more!

It does not matter because what Mother Nature failed to give you the first time around, you can get from "Her" in your bottle of METABO EXTREME.

Remember I asked you to remember thermogenesis? Well, "Thermo" means heat and "genesis" means production. Increasing thermogenesis in weight loss works by raising the metabolic (calorie burning) rate of the body. And remember, the term "metabolic rate" refers to the specific rate at which energy (metabolized food sources and stored FAT) is burnt up by the body.

So you are no longer alone in your struggle to lose weight! AND YOU DO NOT HAVE TO GO ON A DIET!!!

You've got 8 little wonder weight-loss helpers right there in your bottle of METABO EXTREME. They all work together to get your metabolic rate right up and really BURNING THAT FAT AWAY WITHOUT DIETING.

INGREDIENTS:

Guarana (Natural caffeine): South American bean that boosts energy levels. The natural energizer!!

Bee Pollen: Boosts energy and stamina.

Korean Ginseng (root): Increases energy levels and reduces appetite.

Ginger (root): Ginger nutritionally supports the digestive process.

Lecithin: Lecithin is a natural source of choline and inositol, two members of the B-complex vitamins involved in protein and fat metabolism.

Sarsaparilla (root): A natural alternative for increasing energy, helping to regulate hormone balance and boost hormone production, muscle building, increasing metabolic rate and enhances glandular balance.

Golden Seal (aerial part): Golden Seal is one of the most potent herbal detoxifiers, it cleanses and enlivens the blood, lymph and tissues throughout the body.

Nettles (leaf): Increases metabolic rate.

Gotu Kola (aerial part): Effective herbal energy booster thus enhancing metabolism of carbohydrates and fat.

Gymnema Sylvestre (aerial part): People in India have been using the Gymnema Herb as a sugar killer for centuries. Gymnema sylvestre has been successful in controlling the blood sugar level without reducing it to below the normal blood sugar levels. Due to its non-toxic nature and sweetness-suppression activity, Gymnema sylvestre plays a role in treating conditions caused by excessive sugar intake, such as obesity and hypoglycemia.

Not only do these marvellous herbs increase your metabolic rate, they also give you tons of extra NATURAL energy. You'll have more energy now than when you were 8 years old!!

What is more, there are NO SIDE EFFECTS!

Because METABO EXTREME is 100% natural, there are none of the dangerous and uncomfortable side effects

SO WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR: LOSE KG'S, LOOK GREAT AND BE HAPPIER THAN YOU COULD IMAGINE!!!

All you have to do is take your METABO EXTREME tablets as directed and then just let the active natural ingredients work their magic on your Metabolism.
